

acquired, is engaged in commerce or in any activity affecting commerce; and

“(2) as a result of such acquisition, the acquiring person would hold an aggregate total amount of the voting securities and assets of the acquired person—

“(A) in excess of $200,000,000 (as adjusted and published for the first fiscal year beginning after September 30, 2002, and each third fiscal year thereafter, in the same manner as provided in section 8(a)(5) of this Act to reflect the percentage change in the gross national product for such fiscal year compared to the gross national product for the year ending September 30, 2001); or

“(B)(i) in excess of $50,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) but not in excess of $200,000,000 (as so adjusted and published); and

“(ii)(I) any voting securities or assets of a person engaged in manufacturing which has annual net sales or total assets of $10,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more are being acquired by any person which has total assets or annual net sales of $100,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more;

“(II) any voting securities or assets of a person not engaged in manufacturing which has total assets of $10,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more are being acquired by any person which has total assets or annual net sales of $100,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more; or

“(III) any voting securities or assets of a person with total assets or annual net sales of $100,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more are being acquired by any person with total assets or annual net sales of $10,000,000 (as so adjusted and published) or more.

In the case of a tender offer, the person whose voting securities are sought to be acquired by a person required to file notification under this subsection shall file notification pursuant to rules under subsection (d).”.

SEC. 3. INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTARY REQUESTS.

Section 7A(e)(1) of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 18a(e)(1)) is amended—

(1) by inserting “(A)” after “(1)”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(B)(i) The Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall each designate a senior official who does not have direct responsibility for the review of any enforcement recommendation under this section concerning the transaction at issue to hear any petition filed by such person to determine—

“(I) whether the request for additional information or documentary material is unreasonably cumulative, unduly burdensome, or duplicative; or

“(II) whether the request for additional information or documentary material has been substantially complied with by the petitioning person.

“(ii) Internal review procedures for petitions filed pursuant to clause (i) shall include reasonable deadlines for expedited review of such petitions, after reasonable negotiations with investigative staff, in order to avoid undue delay of the merger review process.

“(iii) Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of the 21st Century Acquisition Reform and Improvement Act of 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall conduct an internal review and implement reforms of the merger review process in order to eliminate unnecessary burden, remove costly duplication, and eliminate undue delay, in order to achieve a more effective and more efficient merger review process.

“(iv) Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of the 21st Century Acquisition Reform and Improvement Act of 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall issue or amend their respective industry guidance, regulations, operating manuals, and relevant policy documents, to the extent appropriate, to implement each reform in this subparagraph.

“(v) Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of the 21st Century Acquisition Reform and Improvement Act of 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall each report to Congress—

“(I) which reforms each agency has adopted under this subparagraph;

“(II) which steps each agency has taken to implement internal reforms under this subparagraph; and

“(III) the effects of such reforms.”.

SEC. 4. CALCULATION OF TIME PERIODS.

Section 7A of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 18a) is amended—

(1) in subsection (e)(2), by striking “20 days” and inserting “30 days”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(k) If the end of any period of time provided in this section falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal public holiday (as defined in section 6103(a) of title 5, United States Code), then such period shall be extended to the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal public holiday.”.

SEC. 5. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ANNUAL REPORTS.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2000

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, on behalf of the majority leader, I now ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it recess until the hour of 4:30 p.m. on Monday, October 23.

I further ask unanimous consent that on Monday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then proceed to a period of morning business until 4:45 p.m., with Senators speaking up to 5 minutes each with Senator HARKIN recognized during the morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, the majority leader would advise them that the Senate will convene for a brief session on Monday afternoon for scheduled announcements and possible procedural action on the bankruptcy conference report.

On Tuesday, the Senate is expected to begin consideration of any available conference reports. Leadership will notify the Senators on Monday if votes will be necessary during Tuesday's session of the Senate. It is hoped the Senate can complete its business prior to the expiration of the current continuing resolution. Therefore, votes are possible on Tuesday and will occur throughout the day on Wednesday.
